Henry Chapman Esq

Dear Sir

I sold my collection about 5 years ago, and as I am now about entering my 89 year I feel too old to take up the trad again

yours respectfully

John McLean

ANNOUNCEMENT EXTRAORDINARY

UNRESTRICTED SALE

THE CELEBRATED COLLECTION

JOHN STORY JENKS

PHILADELPHIA

Contains upwards of 11,000 coins of the World, both Ancient and Modern; all in very fine condition. Magnificent examples and rarities in every series.

The largest sale ever held in this country.

The catalogues, which will be about four inches thick, 700 pages, 4to size, containing much information valuable to Numismatists, will be ready about November 1st, and as the cost of shipping them will be very heavy, it will be necessary to make a charge for every catalogue.

Plain catalogues sent before the sale only, price $1.

Illustrated catalogue with 42 beautiful plates, price $20. To the subscribers to this edition a pamphlet containing the sale price of each lot will be sent following the sale free of charge.

AFTER THE SALE

Plate catalogues with price list bound in, price $20.
Plain catalogue with price list bound in, price $5.
No plain catalogue sold separately after the sale.
Price list of what each lot sold for sent after the sale (no catalogue with it), price $2.50.
Orders must be placed at once accompanied by remittance. The edition is limited.

The variety of coins here offered is truly magnificent and there must be some item to interest every collector. If such a great sale and catalogue as this does not interest you, and your interest in Numismatics has ceased, will you have the kindness to notify me so that your name may be stricken off the mailing list.

In times past some collectors have neglected to reply to circulars sent them and their names were dropped, much to their disappointment, while in other cases they neglected to sign their name.

Trusting I may have your prompt reply and assuring you of my appreciation of your valued patronage, I remain,

Very respectfully,

HENRY CHAPMAN.
